China

15-22 September, 2018

3rd CIRCULAR

The Organizing Committee of IGCP-Project 662 has the honor of inviting you to participate in inaugural workshop in China from 15 to 22 September 2018.

www.igcp662.org.cn

The FIRST IGCP-662 workshop and field excursion will be held in China from 15 to 22 September 2018 in China.

A 5-day pre-workshop field discussion and training course “Field observations and mapping of an accretionary orogen: example from Liuyuan, Beishan, southwestern CAOB, NW China” (16-20 September) will be organized by Cees van Staal and Shoufa Lin (Canada). This field excursion will investigate ophiolites, granitoids, tectonics and crustal growth in the Beishan area of NW China. Participants will be limited to 30 persons.

A 1-day workshop (21 September) will follow on the field trip and will be held in Guoyi Hotel, Beijing. It will discuss a research plan for IGCP-662, including annual field and laboratory work and workshops. This workshop will bring together geophysicists, geologists and geochemists to discuss orogenic architecture and crustal growth from accretion to collision.

A 1-day post-workshop training course will be held on 22 Sept. in the Institute of Geology, CAGS, Beijing. It will include: 1) Geochronology: Principles, interpretation and implications (Profs. Alfred Kröner, Suzanne Y. O'Reilly and Yusheng Wan), and 2) Education Geoscience Cooperation as part of the Belt and Road Initiative & International Talents Cultivation in China (Changqian Ma & Jiang Yuan).

You are welcome to participate in the First Workshop and Field Excursion. Please complete the attached form or download from our website of www.igcp662.org.cn. Please send it back to us by email at your earliest convenience.

Important dates (2018)

|------------------|--|
| 31 August | Deadline for submission of abstracts |
| 16 Sept. | Arrival Dunhuang airport and check-in Guazhou Rongjinzhouhai Hotel for the field excursion
(You can fly from Beijing, Urumqi, Shanghai, Chengdu, Hongkong to Dunhuang). We will greet you in Dunhuang airport, close to Guazhou for the field trip. |
| 20 Sept. | Check out from Guazhou Rongjinzhouhai Hotel for the pre-workshop field trip. Fly to Beijing and check-in Beijing Guoyi Hotel for inaugural workshop. |
| 21 Sept. | Workshop in Beijing Guoyi Hotel. |
| 22 Sept. | Post-workshop training course in Chinese Academy of Geological Sciences, Beijing, close to Beijing Guoyi Hotel. |

Detail itinerary is shown on the workshop website www.igcp662.org.cn

Venue of workshop and training course in Beijing

- Workshop (21 Sept.) in Beijing Guoyi Hotel.
- Post-workshop training course (22 Sept.) in Chinese Academy of Geological Sciences, Beijing.

Accommodation and transportation in Beijing

- The reserved hotel for workshop participants is the Beijing Guoyi Hotel (<http://www.guoyihotel.com/en/index.html>), which is also the venue for inaugural workshop (21 September). Post-workshop training course in Chinese Academy of Geological Sciences, Beijing (1.2km).

Standard Room (USD $65 per night) or Single Room (USD $65 per night) with Free WIFI is reserved for IGCP-662 participants. For foreign participants to make a reservation please provide the required information on the attachment form. For domestic participants please book it directly to the Guoyi Hotel or provide the required information on the attachment form email to Dr. Lei Guo, guolei_cn@sina.com

- From Beijing's international airport to Guoyi Hotel, USD $20 by taxi or USD $5 by subway (Airport Express transfer to Subway line 2, and transfer to Subway line 4, get off at the Beijing zoo station and walk 800 meters to Guoyi Hotel).
